

Print out this sheet and color half in bright, cheerful colors. Color the other half of the picture with dull, dreary colors. Let your child see that the same scene can look very different depending on how we choose to color it. Life is very much like this! With God's colors, we have hope, peace, and joy...no matter what!